RJC CERTIFIES A'STAR JEWELLERY

LONDON - RJC announced today that A'Star Jewellery (A division of Asian Star Company Limited), the Mumbai based diamond jewellery manufacturer, has achieved Certification by meeting the highest ethical, social and environmental standards established by the RJC.

"RJC warmly congratulates A'Star Jewellery on its Certification. The successful verification assessment was conducted by Manish C. Doshi from SGS, one of the independent third-party auditing firms accredited by the RJC," says Catherine Sproule, RJC's Chief Executive Officer - Interim.

"A'Star Jewellery strongly believes in setting high quality standards and driving our business in a sustainable and responsible manner. We share the RJC's vision of promoting a responsible world-wide supply chain and are extremely proud to have achieved the RJC Certification. We view this development as an affirmation of our business philosophy and strongly believe it will further enhance consumer confidence across our entire business model," says Priyanshu Shah, Executive Director, A'Star Jewellery.

About RJC

The Responsible Jewellery Council is an international not-for-profit standards and certification organisation. It has more than 470 Member companies that span the jewellery supply chain from mine to retail. RJC Members commit to and are independently audited against the RJC Code of Practices – an international standard on responsible business practices for diamonds, gold and platinum group metals. The Code of Practices addresses human rights, labour rights, environmental impact, mining practices, product disclosure and many more important topics in the jewellery supply chain. RJC also works with multi-stakeholder initiatives on responsible sourcing and supply chain due diligence. The RJC's Chain-of-Custody Certification for precious metals supports these initiatives and can be used as a tool to deliver broader Member and stakeholder benefit.

The RJC is a Full Member of the ISEAL Alliance – the global association for sustainability standards. For more information on RJC Members, Certification, and Standards please visit www.responsiblejewellery.com
