RJC CERTIFIES FAGGI ENRICO SPA

LONDON - RJC announced today that Faggi Enrico Spa has achieved Certification against the 2013 Code of Practices (COP) at its manufacturing and laboratory facilities across Italy.

“It is a pleasure to announce Faggi Enrico Spa has been certified against the 2013 COP. The new provisions under the 2013 COP address important issues for our Members and their supply chain. We are delighted to see Members achieving Certification against the standard and warmly congratulate Faggi Enrico Spa,” says Andrew Bone, RJC’s Executive Director.

The successful verification assessment was led by Simone Olmo from Bureau Veritas Italia, one of the independent third-party auditing firms accredited by the RJC.

“We are really proud to announce the RJC Certification of Faggi Enrico Spa. This is another important step on our path towards the future. The RJC principles correspond perfectly with our ambition to combine commercial success with social responsibility, health, safety and environmental protection. This is a testament to Faggi’s commitment to responsible business practices and we fully support the industry’s ethical development. We encourage all RJC Members to follow the path to certification,” says Gianni Faggi, CEO of Faggi Enrico Spa.

About RJC

The Responsible Jewellery Council is an international not-for-profit standards and certification organisation. It has more than 700 Member companies that span the jewellery supply chain from mine to retail. RJC Members commit to and are independently audited against the RJC Code of Practices – an international standard on responsible business practices for diamonds, gold and platinum group metals. The Code of Practices addresses human rights, labour rights, environmental impact, mining practices, product disclosure and many more important topics in the jewellery supply chain. RJC also works with multi-stakeholder initiatives on responsible sourcing and supply chain due diligence. The RJC’s Chain-of-Custody Certification for precious metals supports these initiatives and can be used as a tool to deliver broader Member and stakeholder benefit.

The RJC is a Full Member of the ISEAL Alliance – the global association for sustainability standards. For more information on RJC Members, Certification, and Standards please visit www.responsiblejewellery.com
