RESPONSIBLE JEWELLERY COUNCIL CERTIFIES IBERTALY SL

LONDON - The Responsible Jewellery Council (RJC) announced today that Ibertaly SL, the Madrid-based jewellery manufacturer, has achieved certification by meeting the ethical, social and environmental standards established by the RJC's Member Certification system.

"RJC warmly congratulates Ibertaly SL on its certification. The successful verification assessment was conducted by Pilar Orden from SGS, one of the independent third-party auditing firms accredited to the RJC's Member Certification system," says Catherine Sproule, RJC's Chief Executive Officer - Interim.

"We received the RJC certification with pride and satisfaction but also as a demonstration of our company's commitment to further advance the excellence we aimed for forty years ago. It opens a new stage in our journey, which we receive with joy, but also with responsibility, because the values that RJC requires and demands are exactly the same values we have set to continue on the path our elders began. And also these are the values that a company of our character needs when working with the most prestigious firms in the XXIst century," says Israel Vicente, CEO of Ibertaly SL.

About RJC

The Responsible Jewellery Council is an international not-for-profit standards and certification organisation. It has more than 460 Member companies that span the jewellery supply chain from mine to retail. RJC Members commit to and are independently audited against the RJC Code of Practices – an international standard on responsible business practices for diamonds, gold and platinum group metals. The Code of Practices addresses human rights, labour rights, environmental impact, mining practices, product disclosure and many more important topics in the jewellery supply chain. RJC also works with multi-stakeholder initiatives on responsible sourcing and supply chain due diligence. The RJC's Chain-of-Custody Certification for precious metals supports these initiatives and can be used as a tool to deliver broader Member and stakeholder benefit.

The RJC is a Full Member of the ISEAL Alliance – the global association for sustainability standards. For more information on RJC Members, Certification, and Standards please visit www.responsiblejewellery.com

About Ibertaly SL

Our company was born in the '70s and actually keeps the same familiar character as before. Since then, we have been manufacturing jewels in precious metals. the purchase and use of the latest technology. Ibertaly has specialised in the development of jewellery pieces for some of the more prestigious firms in the world that demand the highest quality in the manufacture of their designs, with three premises in their relationship with their customer: quality, reliability and responsibility.

Due to our desire to innovate in the production process, Ibertaly hosts one of the largest, modern and technological advanced jewellery workshops in Spain in our new headquarters located in Alcala de Henares (15 km from Madrid Airport), which includes more than 3,000 square meters fully specialised in the manufacturing of jewellery. This new site is designed and studied to the millimetre with all the possible technological and security innovations and here we develop all existing processes in the manufacturing of jewellery. We are without a doubt a reference both in Spanish and European sectors. For more information please visit: www.ibertaly.com
