RJC CERTIFIES MYER JEWELRY MANUFACTURER LTD

LONDON - RJC announced today that Myer Jewelry Manufacturer Ltd has achieved Certification against the 2013 Code of Practices (COP) at its sales and manufacturing facilities in Hong Kong and China.

“It is a pleasure to announce Myer Jewelry Manufacturer Ltd has been certified against the 2013 COP. The provisions under the 2013 COP address important issues for our Members and their supply chain. We are delighted to see Members achieving Certification against the standard and warmly congratulate Myer Jewelry Manufacturer Ltd,” says Andrew Bone, RJC’s Executive Director.

The successful verification assessment was led by Thomas Kwok from Bureau Veritas Italia, one of the independent third-party auditing firms accredited by the RJC.

“We are honoured and pleased to have achieved RJC Certification. This achievement demonstrates Myer’s long commitment in promoting responsible and ethical practices in the fine jewelry manufacturing business. For over thirty years, we have been sticking to the provision of impeccable workmanship and excellent service to our customers. With our RJC Certification status, we are continuing this journey with a mission for a sustainable jewelry business in the years to come,” says Benedict Sin, General Manager & Director of Myer Jewelry Manufacturer Ltd.

About RJC

The Responsible Jewellery Council is an international not-for-profit standards and certification organisation. It has more than 800 Member companies that span the jewellery supply chain from mine to retail. RJC Members commit to and are independently audited against the RJC Code of Practices – an international standard on responsible business practices for diamonds, gold and platinum group metals. The Code of Practices addresses human rights, labour rights, environmental impact, mining practices, product disclosure and many more important topics in the jewellery supply chain. RJC also works with multi-stakeholder initiatives on responsible sourcing and supply chain due diligence. The RJC’s Chain-of-Custody Certification for precious metals supports these initiatives and can be used as a tool to deliver broader Member and stakeholder benefit.

The RJC is a Full Member of the ISEAL Alliance – the global association for sustainability standards. For more information on RJC Members, Certification, and Standards please visit www.responsiblejewellery.com
