RJC CERTIFIES RAMON JOIERS S.L.

LONDON - RJC announced today that Ramon Joiers S.L., the Spanish jewellery manufacturer, has achieved Certification by meeting the highest ethical, social and environmental standards established by the RJC.

“RJC warmly congratulates Ramon Joiers S.L. on its Certification,” says Ashish Deo, RJC’s Chief Executive Officer.

The successful verification assessment was conducted by Pilar Orden from SGS, one of the independent third-party auditing firms accredited by the RJC.

“Ramon is very proud to become an RJC Certified Member and to join some of the most prestigious names of the jewellery industry. This achievement is the result of the commitment of the entire company that has been working to maintain the highest ethical standards all these years. It is important for Ramon to be recognised not only for our high quality jewellery but also for our responsible practices,” says Carlos Ramon, CEO, Ramon Joiers S. L.

About RJC

The Responsible Jewellery Council is an international not-for-profit standards and certification organisation. It has more than 500 Member companies that span the jewellery supply chain from mine to retail. RJC Members commit to and are independently audited against the RJC Code of Practices – an international standard on responsible business practices for diamonds, gold and platinum group metals. The Code of Practices addresses human rights, labour rights, environmental impact, mining practices, product disclosure and many more important topics in the jewellery supply chain. RJC also works with multi-stakeholder initiatives on responsible sourcing and supply chain due diligence. The RJC’s Chain-of-Custody Certification for precious metals supports these initiatives and can be used as a tool to deliver broader Member and stakeholder benefit.

The RJC is a Full Member of the ISEAL Alliance – the global association for sustainability standards. For more information on RJC Members, Certification, and Standards please visit www.responsiblejewellery.com
