RESPONSIBLE JEWELLERY COUNCIL CERTIFIES UMANE CREATIONS

LONDON - The Responsible Jewellery Council (RJC) announced today that Umane Créations, the Paris-based jewellery manufacturer, has achieved certification by meeting the highest ethical, social and environmental standards established by the RJC's Member Certification system.

"RJC warmly congratulates Umane Créations on its certification. The successful verification assessment was conducted by Marguerite Whitwham from SGS, one of the independent third-party auditing firms accredited to the RJC's Member Certification system," says Michael Rae, RJC's Chief Executive Officer.

"We are very pleased to have become RJC certified. All of us here at Umane have been involved into the certification process and feel proud to have met the RJC ethical standards," say Valérie Brun and Maé Jund, Managers of Umane Créations.

About RJC

The Responsible Jewellery Council is an international not-for-profit standards and certification organisation. It has more than 450 Member companies that span the jewellery supply chain from mine to retail. RJC Members commit to and are independently audited against the RJC Code of Practices – an international standard on responsible business practices for diamonds, gold and platinum group metals. The Code of Practices addresses human rights, labour rights, environmental impact, mining practices, product disclosure and many more important topics in the jewellery supply chain. RJC also works with multi-stakeholder initiatives on responsible sourcing and supply chain due diligence. The RJC's Chain-of-Custody Certification for precious metals supports these initiatives and can be used as a tool to deliver broader Member and stakeholder benefit.

The RJC is a Full Member of the ISEAL Alliance – the global association for sustainability standards. For more information on RJC Members, Certification, and Standards please visit www.responsiblejewellery.com
