RESPONSIBLE JEWELLERY COUNCIL CERTIFIES CHINA DIAMOND CORPORATION LIMITED

LONDON - The Responsible Jewellery Council (RJC) announced today that China Diamond Corporation Limited, the Hong Kong-based diamond manufacturer, has achieved certification by meeting the highest ethical, social and environmental standards established by the RJC's Member Certification System.

"RJC warmly congratulates China Diamond Corporation Limited on its certification. The successful verification assessment was conducted by Cindy Cheung from SGS, one of the independent third-party auditing firms accredited to the RJC's Member Certification System," says Michael Rae, RJC's Chief Executive Officer.

"We are delighted to become a certified member of RJC. Our continuous efforts towards human rights, social and environmental practices have been recognized by achieving RJC Certification. We will continue to follow the high standards of business ethics set out by the Council," says Ketan Anandpara, Chief Financial Officer of China Diamond Corporation Limited.

About RJC

The Responsible Jewellery Council is an international not-for-profit organisation bringing together more than 350 member companies committed to promoting responsible ethical, human rights, social and environmental practices in a transparent and accountable manner throughout the jewellery industry from mine to retail. Their commitment aims to reinforce consumer and stakeholder confidence in diamond, gold and platinum group metals jewellery products. The Council has developed the RJC Member Certification System, a certification system, which will apply to all Members' businesses that contribute to the diamond, gold and platinum group metals jewellery supply chain. All Commercial Members of the RJC are required to be audited by accredited, third-party auditors to verify their conformance with the RJC's Code of Practices and become certified under the RJC Member Certification System.
