DIAMEX MANUFACTURING NV CERTIFIED BY THE RESPONSIBLE JEWELLERY COUNCIL

LONDON - The Responsible Jewellery Council (RJC) announced today that Diamex Manufacturing NV, the Antwerp-based diamond trader and polishing manufacturer, has achieved certification by meeting the highest ethical, social and environmental standards established by the RJC's Member Certification System.

"RJC warmly congratulates Diamex Manufacturing NV on its certification. The successful verification assessment was conducted by Ann Van Vlaenderen from WF&Co., one of the independent third-party auditing firms accredited to the RJC's Member Certification System," says Michael Rae, RJC's Chief Executive Officer.

"Diamex is very happy to join the long list of RJC certified companies. This reinforces what we have always strived for: the highest ethical, social and environmental standings in our industry. Everyone at Diamex will proudly continue to ensure that our business will meet the highest standards of consumer confidence. We will strongly encourage our business partners to do so as well and we congratulate the RJC for the work they do for the worldwide diamond and jewellery industry," says Claude Beller, Director of Diamex Manufacturing NV.

About RJC

The Responsible Jewellery Council is an international not-for-profit organisation bringing together more than 350 member companies committed to promoting responsible ethical, human rights, social and environmental practices in a transparent and accountable manner throughout the jewellery industry from mine to retail. Their commitment aims to reinforce consumer and stakeholder confidence in diamond, gold and platinum group metals jewellery products. The Council has developed the RJC Member Certification System, a certification system, which will apply to all Members' businesses that contribute to the diamond, gold and platinum group metals jewellery supply chain. All Commercial Members of the RJC are required to be audited by accredited, third-party auditors to verify their conformance with the RJC's Code of Practices and become certified under the RJC Member Certification System.
