EUROSTAR DIAMOND TRADERS NV CERTIFIED BY THE RESPONSIBLE JEWELLERY COUNCIL

LONDON – The Responsible Jewellery Council (RJC) today announced that Eurostar Diamond Traders NV, the Belgian diamond cutting and polishing manufacturer, has achieved certification meeting the ethical, human rights, social and environmental standards as established by the RJC's Member Certification System.

“RJC warmly congratulates Eurostar Diamond Traders NV (Belgium) on its certification. The successful verification assessment of Eurostar Diamond Traders NV in Belgium was conducted by Peter Warbrick from SGS, one of the independent third-party auditing firms accredited to the RJC's Member Certification System,” says Michael Rae, RJC's Chief Executive Officer.

“As one of the leading diamond manufacturers worldwide, we are pleased to receive the RJC Certification for the next 3 years, reflecting our corporate values and high standards in social, environmental and ethical accountability, throughout all our business processes,” says Kaushik Mehta, CEO of Eurostar Diamond Traders.

About RJC

The Responsible Jewellery Council is an international not-for-profit organisation bringing together more than 330 member companies committed to promoting responsible ethical, human rights, social and environmental practices in a transparent and accountable manner throughout the jewellery industry from mine to retail. Their commitment aims to reinforce consumer and stakeholder confidence in diamond, gold and platinum group metals jewellery products. The Council has developed the RJC Member Certification System, a certification system, which will apply to all Members' businesses that contribute to the diamond, gold and platinum group metals jewellery supply chain. All Commercial Members of the RJC are required to be audited by accredited, third-party auditors to verify their conformance with the RJC's Code of Practices and become certified under the RJC Member Certification System.
