BRINK'S GLOBAL SERVICES ANNOUNCED AS A SUPPORTER OF THE RESPONSIBLE JEWELLERY COUNCIL

LONDON – The Responsible Jewellery Council (RJC) today announced that Brink's Global Services has become an official Supporter of the Council.

"We are delighted to announce Brink's Global Services as a Supporter of the Responsible Jewellery Council (RJC). Brink's Global Services joins institutions such as ABN AMRO, Compagnie Financière Richemont SA, BASELWORLD, IDEX Online, JCK Events and Collection Pan-Arab Luxury Magazine as valued RJC Supporters as well as more than 310 companies and Trade Associations in the Council's growing membership. We look forward to a strong synergy between the two organizations," said Michael Rae, RJC's Chief Executive Officer.

"Brink's Global Services specialises in risk management, secure transportation and handling of diamonds, precious metals, jewellery and all other valuable commodities. Brink's is an active member of the RJC's Consultative Panel, and is contributing to the development of the RJC's "chain of custody" initiative and the RJC's standards surrounding the responsible transport and handling of product," said Amit Zukerman, President of Brink's Global Services.

About RJC

The Responsible Jewellery Council is an international not-for-profit organisation bringing together more than 310 member companies committed to promoting responsible ethical, human rights, social and environmental practices in a transparent and accountable manner throughout the jewellery industry from mine to retail. Their commitment aims to reinforce consumer and stakeholder confidence in diamond, gold and platinum group metals jewellery products.

The Council has developed the RJC System, a certification system – which will apply to all Members' businesses that contribute to the diamond, gold and platinum group metals jewellery supply chain. All Commercial Members of the RJC are required to be audited by accredited, third party auditors to verify their conformance with the RJC's Code of Practices and become certified under the RJC System.
