RJC RE-CERTIFIES AHARON GUL KG

LONDON - RJC announced today that Aharon Gul KG has achieved Certification against the 2013 Code of Practices (COP) at its trading facility in Pforzheim, Germany.

“It is a pleasure to announce Aharon Gul KG has been certified against the 2013 COP. The new provisions under the 2013 COP address important issues for our Members and their supply chain. We are delighted to see Members achieving Certification against the standard and warmly congratulate Aharon Gul KG,” says Andrew Bone, RJC’s Executive Director.

The successful verification assessment was led by Jean-François Jenni from Bureau Veritas Italia, one of the independent third-party auditing firms accredited by the RJC.

“It is a great pleasure and honour for us to be certified by the RJC once again. This certification underlines our high standards and strong values. This is even more pleasing for us, as we will be celebrating our company’s 50th anniversary next year. Great responsibility, ethical business practices and remaining close to our customers and their needs have always been the main pillars of our actions. We would like to thank all our partners, employees and customers who have accompanied us on this path to this day,” says owner and CEO Eitan Gul.

About RJC

The Responsible Jewellery Council is an international not-for-profit standards and certification organisation. It has more than 900 Member companies that span the jewellery supply chain from mine to retail. RJC Members commit to and are independently audited against the RJC Code of Practices – an international standard on responsible business practices for diamonds, gold and platinum group metals. The Code of Practices addresses human rights, labour rights, environmental impact, mining practices, product disclosure and many more important topics in the jewellery supply chain. RJC also works with multi-stakeholder initiatives on responsible sourcing and supply chain due diligence. The RJC’s Chain-of-Custody Certification for precious metals supports these initiatives and can be used as a tool to deliver broader Member and stakeholder benefit.

The RJC is a Full Member of the ISEAL Alliance – the global association for sustainability standards. For more information on RJC Members, Certification, and Standards please visit www.responsiblejewellery.com
