RJC RE-CERTIFIES RUBEL & MÉNASCHÉ

LONDON - RJC announced today that Rubel & Ménasché has achieved Certification against the 2013 Code of Practices (COP) at its headquarters in Paris, France.

“It is a pleasure to announce Rubel & Ménasché has been certified against the 2013 COP. The new provisions under the 2013 COP address important issues for our members and their supply chain. We are delighted to see members achieving certification against the standard and warmly congratulate Rubel & Ménasché,” says Andrew Bone, RJC’s Executive Director.

The successful verification assessment was led by Christophe Schmeitzky from Ernst & Young et Associes (France), one of the independent third-party auditing firms accredited by the RJC.

“We are very proud to have obtained our third RJC certification! This testifies to our company’s commitment in terms of the quality of our services and the continuous improvement of our business practices and performance. Our quality process is the lever that enables us to both address and fully contribute to the expectations of the profession. We are very much part of this collective movement which first and foremost must be a collaborative one if it is to lead us towards the success and wellbeing of each segment of the supply chain,” says Stephan Wolzok, CEO of Rubel & Ménasché

About RJC

The Responsible Jewellery Council is an international not-for-profit standards and certification organisation. It has more than 900 Member companies that span the jewellery supply chain from mine to retail. RJC Members commit to and are independently audited against the RJC Code of Practices – an international standard on responsible business practices for diamonds, gold and platinum group metals. The Code of Practices addresses human rights, labour rights, environmental impact, mining practices, product disclosure and many more important topics in the jewellery supply chain. RJC also works with multi-stakeholder initiatives on responsible sourcing and supply chain due diligence. The RJC’s Chain-of-Custody Certification for precious metals supports these initiatives and can be used as a tool to deliver broader Member and stakeholder benefit.

The RJC is a Full Member of the ISEAL Alliance – the global association for sustainability standards. For more information on RJC Members, Certification, and Standards please visit www.responsiblejewellery.com

About Rubel & Ménasché

Established in 1950, Rubel & Ménasché, an historical player in the diamond industry, supplies the top jewellers in the world with exceptional diamonds.

The diamond dealer, with its in-house re-cutting workshop (working on one-of-a kind pieces), its innovative industrial processes and tailor-made advanced services, is to date one of the few select Parisian workshops to offer such high-quality diamonds and savoir-faire in such short time frames.

For more than 15 years now, the company has endeavoured to introduce respectful work methods for every link of the chain, ensuring the ethical, social, interdependent and environmental monitoring of the diamonds it selects.

Responsibility and integrity of the supply chain are at the core of Rubel & Ménasché's priorities.
