RJC CERTIFIES SEJAL EXPORTS (INDIA)

LONDON - RJC announced today that Sejal Exports (India) has achieved Certification against the 2013 Code of Practices (COP) at its trading and assortment offices in Mumbai and Surat, India.

"It is a pleasure to announce Sejal Exports (India) has been certified against the 2013 COP. The provisions under the 2013 COP address important issues for our Members and their supply chain. We are delighted to see Members achieving Certification against the standard and warmly congratulate Sejal Exports (India)," says Andrew Bone, RJC's Executive Director.

The successful verification assessment was led by Manish C. Doshi from SGS United Kingdom Limited, one of the independent third-party auditing firms accredited by the RJC.

"Sejal Exports (India), a name that is synonymous with respect and trust in the industry; takes pleasure in successfully achieving RJC Certification. This Certification confirms our company's sustained adherence to the most ethical business practices in all aspects of our business and the commitment to serve our clients with the best of quality products and services," says Mr Parin Sevantilal Shah Partner of Sejal Exports (India).

About RJC

The Responsible Jewellery Council is an international not-for-profit standards and certification organisation. It has more than 800 Member companies that span the jewellery supply chain from mine to retail. RJC Members commit to and are independently audited against the RJC Code of Practices – an international standard on responsible business practices for diamonds, gold and platinum group metals. The Code of Practices addresses human rights, labour rights, environmental impact, mining practices, product disclosure and many more important topics in the jewellery supply chain. RJC also works with multi-stakeholder initiatives on responsible sourcing and supply chain due diligence. The RJC's Chain-of-Custody Certification for precious metals supports these initiatives and can be used as a tool to deliver broader Member and stakeholder benefit.

The RJC is a Full Member of the ISEAL Alliance – the global association for sustainability standards. For more information on RJC Members, Certification, and Standards please visit www.responsiblejewellery.com
