RESPONSIBLE JEWELLERY COUNCIL CERTIFIES FISCHLER DIAMONDS N.V.

LONDON - The Responsible Jewellery Council (RJC) announced today that Fischler Diamonds N.V., the Antwerp - based diamond trader, has achieved certification by meeting the highest ethical, social and environmental standards established by the RJC's Member Certification system.

"RJC warmly congratulates Fischler Diamonds N.V. on its certification. The successful verification assessment was conducted by Ann Van Vlaenderen from WF & Co., one of the independent third-party auditing firms accredited to the RJC's Member Certification system," says Michael Rae, RJC's Chief Executive Officer.

"We at Fischler Diamonds N.V. are very pleased with our RJC Certification. Above all, we are happy to see that the business philosophy and principles which we inherited from our company founders are completely in line with this industry standard. We are convinced that the RJC Certification will enable us to further spread our values of ethical conduct and respect," said Michel Fischler, Director of Fischler Diamonds N.V.

About RJC

The Responsible Jewellery Council is an international not-for-profit organisation bringing together more than 415 member companies. RJC and its Members are committed to promoting responsible ethical, human rights, social and environmental practices in a transparent and accountable manner throughout the jewellery industry from mine to retail. This commitment aims to reinforce consumer and stakeholder confidence in diamond, gold and platinum metals jewellery products. The RJC has developed the RJC Member Certification system which applies to all Members' businesses that contribute to the diamond, gold and platinum metals jewellery supply chain. All Certified Members of the RJC are audited by accredited, third party auditors to verify their conformance with the RJC's Code of Practices. A voluntary Chain-of-Custody Standard has also been developed for gold and platinum group metals. The RJC is a Full Member of the ISEAL Alliance – the global association for sustainability standards.
