RESPONSIBLE JEWELLERY COUNCIL CERTIFIES CTF DIAMOND TRADING COMPANY LTD

LONDON - The Responsible Jewellery Council (RJC) announced today that CTF Diamond Trading Company Ltd, the Hong-Kong based diamond trader, has achieved certification by meeting the highest ethical, social and environmental standards established by the RJC's Member Certification system.

"RJC warmly congratulates CTF Diamond Trading Company Ltd on its certification. The successful verification assessment was conducted by Sam Mao from SGS, one of the independent third-party auditing firms accredited to the RJC's Member Certification System," says Michael Rae, RJC's Chief Executive Officer.

"We are very pleased with the certification by the Responsible Jewellery Council. Strengthening our corporate image and enhancing consumer confidence in CTF products is our main objective. The RJC certification will undoubtedly enable us to achieve exactly those goals," says Wilson Cheng, Director of CTF Diamond Trading Company Limited.

About RJC

The Responsible Jewellery Council is an international not-for-profit organisation bringing together more than 360 member companies committed to promoting responsible ethical, human rights, social and environmental practices in a transparent and accountable manner throughout the jewellery industry from mine to retail. Their commitment aims to reinforce consumer and stakeholder confidence in diamond, gold and platinum group metals jewellery products. The Council has developed the RJC Member Certification System, a certification system, which will apply to all Members' businesses that contribute to the diamond, gold and platinum group metals jewellery supply chain. All Commercial Members of the RJC are required to be audited by accredited, third-party auditors to verify their conformance with the RJC's Code of Practices and become certified under the RJC Member Certification System.
