GROSPIRON CERTIFIED BY THE RESPONSIBLE JEWELLERY COUNCIL

LONDON - The Responsible Jewellery Council (RJC) announced today that Grospiron, the Paris-based diamond wholesaler, has achieved certification meeting the ethical, human rights, social and environmental standards as established by the RJC's Member Certification System.

"RJC warmly congratulates Grospiron on its certification. Grospiron's successful verification assessment was conducted by Laurent Lhopitalier from Deloitte France, one of the independent third-party auditing firms accredited to the RJC's Member Certification System," says Michael Rae, RJC's Chief Executive Officer.

"Grospiron is very proud to have achieved this important certification as we are constantly trying to improve our customers and suppliers' confidence through our reputation of integrity and expertise. As well as the Customs certification A.E.O. (Authorized Economic Operator), we believe that RJC will reflect our willingness to employ responsible practices," says Xavier Grospiron, Managing Director.

About RJC

The Responsible Jewellery Council is an international not-for-profit organisation bringing together more than 350 member companies committed to promoting responsible ethical, human rights, social and environmental practices in a transparent and accountable manner throughout the jewellery industry from mine to retail. Their commitment aims to reinforce consumer and stakeholder confidence in diamond, gold and platinum group metals jewellery products. The Council has developed the RJC Member Certification System, a certification system, which will apply to all Members' businesses that contribute to the diamond, gold and platinum group metals jewellery supply chain. All Commercial Members of the RJC are required to be audited by accredited, third-party auditors to verify their conformance with the RJC's Code of Practices and become certified under the RJC Member Certification System.
