RESPONSIBLE JEWELLERY COUNCIL CERTIFIES RIKHAV BVBA

LONDON - The Responsible Jewellery Council (RJC) announced today that Rikhav BVBA, the Belgium-based diamond trader and manufacturer, has achieved certification by meeting the highest ethical, social and environmental standards established by the RJC's Member Certification system.

"RJC warmly congratulates Rikhav BVBA on its certification. The successful verification assessment was conducted by Ann Van Vlaenderen from WF&Co. one of the independent third-party auditing firms accredited to the RJC's Member Certification system," says Michael Rae, RJC's Chief Executive Officer.

"We are very pleased to be certified by the Responsible Jewellery Council. At Rikhav BVBA, we handle the business with the utmost Integrity and dedication to enhance organization values and commitment to a positive economic, environmental and social impact on our business. We are committed to ensuring that all aspects of our business reflect the highest standards of conduct," says Jayesh Shah, Director, Rikhav BVBA.

About RJC

The Responsible Jewellery Council is an international not-for-profit organisation bringing together more than 370 member companies committed to promoting responsible ethical, human rights, social and environmental practices in a transparent and accountable manner throughout the jewellery industry from mine to retail. Their commitment aims to reinforce consumer and stakeholder confidence in diamond, gold and platinum group metals jewellery products. The Council has developed the RJC Member Certification System, a certification system, which will apply to all Members' businesses that contribute to the diamond, gold and platinum group metals jewellery supply chain. All Commercial Members of the RJC are required to be audited by accredited, third-party auditors to verify their conformance with the RJC's Code of Practices and become certified under the RJC Member Certification System.
