RESPONSIBLE JEWELLERY COUNCIL CERTIFIES ROGER MATHON SA

LONDON - The Responsible Jewellery Council (RJC) announced today that Roger Mathon SA, the jewellery manufacturer based in Paris, has achieved certification by meeting the highest ethical, social and environmental standards established by the RJC's Member Certification system.

"RJC warmly congratulates Roger Mathon SA on its certification. The successful verification assessment was conducted by Laurent Lhopitalier from Deloitte, one of the independent third-party auditing firms accredited to the RJC's Member Certification System," says Michael Rae, RJC's Chief Executive Officer.

"Roger Mathon SA is sincerely involved in the preservation of French-made high-quality jewellery, which means not only the expression of extraordinary skills but also the respect of ethical values. Throughout the whole process of jewellery making, we promote responsible social and environmental practices. Being today certified by the Responsible Jewellery Council is an important recognition: it testifies that we care about the individual and his environment in the business. Everyone in the company feels responsible for passing on such values," says Frédéric Mathon, CEO, Roger Mathon SA.

About RJC

The Responsible Jewellery Council is an international not-for-profit organisation bringing together more than 360 member companies committed to promoting responsible ethical, human rights, social and environmental practices in a transparent and accountable manner throughout the jewellery industry from mine to retail. Their commitment aims to reinforce consumer and stakeholder confidence in diamond, gold and platinum group metals jewellery products. The Council has developed the RJC Member Certification System, a certification system, which will apply to all Members' businesses that contribute to the diamond, gold and platinum group metals jewellery supply chain. All Commercial Members of the RJC are required to be audited by accredited, third-party auditors to verify their conformance with the RJC's Code of Practices and become certified under the RJC Member Certification System.
