L&N DIAMONDS CERTIFIED BY THE RESPONSIBLE JEWELLERY COUNCIL

LONDON – The Responsible Jewellery Council (RJC) today announced that L&N Diamonds, the diamond cutting and polishing manufacturer, has achieved certification meeting the ethical, human rights, social and environmental standards as established by the RJC's Member Certification System.

"RJC congratulates L&N Diamonds on its certification. The successful verification assessment of L&N Diamonds was conducted by Alex Katz from STR, one of the independent third-party auditing firms accredited to the RJC's Member Certification System," says Michael Rae, RJC's Chief Executive Officer.

"We are very excited to have become RJC certified as this reinforces our customers' and suppliers' confidence in our company. As one of Israel's leading diamond manufacturers, it is an honour and privilege to be among the first Israeli companies to be certified. We hope many more Israeli companies step up to become RJC compliant as well," says Shirley Brandwien, Project Manager and Business Development, L&N Diamonds.

About RJC

The Responsible Jewellery Council is an international not-for-profit organisation bringing together more than 330 member companies committed to promoting responsible ethical, human rights, social and environmental practices in a transparent and accountable manner throughout the jewellery industry from mine to retail. Their commitment aims to reinforce consumer and stakeholder confidence in diamond, gold and platinum group metals jewellery products. The Council has developed the RJC Member Certification System, a certification system, which will apply to all Members' businesses that contribute to the diamond, gold and platinum group metals jewellery supply chain. All Commercial Members of the RJC are required to be audited by accredited, third-party auditors to verify their conformance with the RJC's Code of Practices and become certified under the RJC Member Certification System.
