DEFINITIONS:

1. The Responsible Jewellery Council is a trading name of the Council for Responsible Jewellery Practices Ltd, which is registered in England and Wales with a company number 05449042, First Floor Dudley House, 34-38 Southampton Street, London, UK, WC2E 7HF.
2. Diamond: As defined by ISO 18323:2015. A mineral consisting essentially of carbon crystallised in the isometric (cubic) crystal system, with a hardness on the Mohs' scale of 10, a specific gravity of approximately 3,52 and a refractive index of approximately 2,42, created by nature.
3. Gold: a rare yellow metallic element with the chemical symbol "Au". It is a mineral with specific hardness of 2.5-3 on the Mohs scale of hardness and the atomic number 79. Gold purity is measured by karat: one karat being 1/24th part by weight of pure gold.
4. Platinum Metals: Precious metallic elements, also known as the Platinum Group, that have similar physical and chemical properties and tend to occur together in the same mineral deposits. Platinum Metals' purity is measured in parts per thousand. Platinum Metals within the scope of the RJC are: Rhodium: chemical symbol 'Rh', Mohs hardness 6, atomic number 45; Palladium: chemical symbol 'Pd', Mohs hardness 5, atomic number 46; Platinum: chemical symbol 'Pt', Mohs hardness 4-4.5, atomic number 78.
5. Jewellery: an adornment made of precious metals (including gold and platinum) and set with gem stones (including diamonds). Jewellery includes, but is not limited to, bracelets, rings, necklaces and watches.
6. Applicant: means any body or person eligible for membership in accordance with the Articles and that wishes to be considered for membership of the Council.
7. Principles and Code of Practices of the RJC can be found on the website www.responsiblejewellery.com
8. Antitrust Policy and Rules: full details on the RJC's Policies including the Articles of Association can be found on the website www.responsiblejewellery.com

Note: The Certification Scope of the RJC System includes Gold, Platinum Group Metals, Diamonds and Laboratory-grown diamonds.

CONFIDENTIALITY NOTE:

Application forms, and any financial or other commercially sensitive information provided to the Council as part of this application form will be treated as confidential and will be used for the sole purpose of processing Membership applications and assessing Membership fees.

The RJC will not disclose or release this or any other confidential information to any third party (including other Members of the Council) unless such information is absolutely required to be disclosed by a court, mandatory provision of law, governmental or other authority or regulatory body.

Fees

Association Membership fees are set annually by the RJC's elected Board of Directors. The current fees are set out in the table below.

The annual (flat rate) fee for Association Membership is £1,500GBP or $2,450USD.

The membership year is on a rolling date basis, starting from your joining date.

Please note the Council issues Membership invoices in GBP or USD, please indicate which currency you would prefer to be invoiced in:

- Great British Pounds Sterling – GBP
- United States Dollars – USD

Please note the Council's rules on Membership resignations:

1. If a member resigns within the calendar year, the annual fee is non-refundable;
2. If a member wishes to re-join RJC during a subsequent calendar year, the recalcitrant fee is payable to the RJC;
3. If remitting the annual fee on a quarterly basis (for annual fees over £5,000 GBP) the full annual fee is still payable if the member resigns its RJC membership within the calendar year.

Application process

We will contact you in writing to confirm receipt of your application. It may be necessary for us to seek clarification of information provided in your Application Form. We will endeavour to process your application within 30 working days.

On acceptance of your application we will issue you with a membership fee invoice. Membership fees will become payable within 30 days of the date of the invoice.

On receipt of your membership fee, we will contact you again in writing to confirm your membership in the Council, to provide you with RJC logo material and to confirm your association's listing on the Member page of the RJC website. You will also be invited to join the RJC's online training sessions.

Your association is strongly encouraged to familiarise itself with the Council's Mission, Principles and Code of Practices, Antitrust Policy and Rules, and the requirements of the Council's Member Certification system, before submitting an application for Association Membership. Please note, however, that Association Members are not required to achieve RJC Member Certification, only Commercial Members.

Information may be found on the Council's website: www.responsiblejewellery.com

Your involvement with the Responsible Jewellery Council

RJC Members are invited to participate in the governance of the organisation and contribute to the on-going development and improvement of the Council's Certification system.

Once your membership has been confirmed, we will contact you with further information regarding opportunities for involvement. Whatever your choice, we will ensure that you are kept up to date with progress, training opportunities, RJC events such as AGMs and workshops, and key industry developments.
