RJC RE-CERTIFIES INDIAN DIAMANTAIRE, DIMEXON DIAMONDS LTD

LONDON - RJC announced today that Dimexon Diamonds Ltd has achieved Re-Certification against the 2013 Code of Practices (COP) at its manufacturing, sales and distribution facilities in India, United Arab Emirates and Belgium.

“It is a pleasure to announce Dimexon Diamonds Ltd has been certified against the 2013 COP. The new provisions under the 2013 COP address important issues for our Members and their supply chain. We are delighted to see Members achieving Certification against the standard and warmly congratulate Dimexon Diamonds Ltd,” says Andrew Bone, RJC’s Executive Director.

The successful verification assessment was led by Manish C. Doshi from SGS United Kingdom Limited, one of the independent third-party auditing firms accredited by the RJC.

“Dimexon Diamonds Ltd is pleased to have achieved RJC Re-Certification. This Re-Certification confirms our continued commitment to our core values and to responsible and ethical business practices. Due to its clear audit guidelines, RJC has become a testament of credibility and evaluation and enables all stakeholders in the Diamond Jewellery supply chain to establish a significantly high level-playing field,” says Rajiv Mehta, Director of Dimexon Diamonds Ltd.

About RJC

The Responsible Jewellery Council is an international not-for-profit standards and certification organisation. It has more than 700 Member companies that span the jewellery supply chain from mine to retail. RJC Members commit to and are independently audited against the RJC Code of Practices – an international standard on responsible business practices for diamonds, gold and platinum group metals. The Code of Practices addresses human rights, labour rights, environmental impact, mining practices, product disclosure and many more important topics in the jewellery supply chain. RJC also works with multi-stakeholder initiatives on responsible sourcing and supply chain due diligence. The RJC’s Chain-of-Custody Certification for precious metals supports these initiatives and can be used as a tool to deliver broader Member and stakeholder benefit.

The RJC is a Full Member of the ISEAL Alliance – the global association for sustainability standards. For more information on RJC Members, Certification, and Standards please visit www.responsiblejewellery.com
