RJC CERTIFIES LASER SERVICE SRL UNIPERSONALE

LONDON - RJC announced today that Laser Service s.r.l Unipersonale has achieved Certification against the new 2013 Code of Practices (COP) at its engraving factory facility in Valenza, Italy. The new 2013 COP was released in November 2013.

"It is a pleasure to announce Laser Service s.r.l Unipersonale has been certified against the 2013 COP. The new provisions under the 2013 COP address important issues for our Members and their supply chain. We commend those Members achieving these early Certifications against the new standard and warmly congratulate Laser Service s.r.l Unipersonales" says Catherine Sproule, RJC's Chief Operations Officer.

The successful verification assessment was led by Simone Olmo from Bureau Veritas Italia, one of the independent third-party auditing firms accredited by the RJC.

"We are very pleased with achieving RJC certification status. I'm proud that Laser Service s.r.l Unipersonale is recognised for demonstrating the quality standard level and the ethical business practices required to achieved this Certification." says Marcello Fradiani, CEO at Laser Service s.r.l Unipersonale

About RJC

The Responsible Jewellery Council is an international not-for-profit standards and certification organisation. It has more than 500 Member companies that span the jewellery supply chain from mine to retail. RJC Members commit to and are independently audited against the RJC Code of Practices – an international standard on responsible business practices for diamonds, gold and platinum group metals. The Code of Practices addresses human rights, labour rights, environmental impact, mining practices, product disclosure and many more important topics in the jewellery supply chain. RJC also works with multi-stakeholder initiatives on responsible sourcing and supply chain due diligence. The RJC's Chain-of-Custody Certification for precious metals supports these initiatives and can be used as a tool to deliver broader Member and stakeholder benefit.

The RJC is a Full Member of the ISEAL Alliance – the global association for sustainability standards. For more information on RJC Members, Certification, and Standards please visit www.responsiblejewellery.com
