RJC CERTIFIES RNP JEWELRY DESIGN LTD (HONG KONG)

LONDON - RJC announced today that RNP Jewelry Design Ltd (Hong Kong) has achieved Certification against the 2013 Code of Practices (COP) at its trading office in Hong Kong.

“It is a pleasure to announce RNP Jewelry Design Ltd (Hong Kong) has been certified against the 2013 COP. The new provisions under the 2013 COP address important issues for our Members and their supply chain. We are delighted to see Members achieving Certification against the standard and warmly congratulate RNP Jewelry Design Ltd (Hong Kong),” says Andrew Bone, RJC’s Executive Director.

The successful verification assessment was led by UL Responsible Sourcing, one of the independent third-party auditing firms accredited by the RJC.

“RNP is proud to have achieved RJC Certification. This accomplishment confirms our company’s commitment to responsible and ethical business practices. It motivates and reminds our corporation to uphold the fidelity of delivering quality services to all of our clients responsibly,” says Ronnie Woo, General Manager of RNP Jewelry Design Ltd (Hong Kong).

About RJC

The Responsible Jewellery Council is an international not-for-profit standards and certification organisation. It has more than 700 Member companies that span the jewellery supply chain from mine to retail. RJC Members commit to and are independently audited against the RJC Code of Practices – an international standard on responsible business practices for diamonds, gold and platinum group metals. The Code of Practices addresses human rights, labour rights, environmental impact, mining practices, product disclosure and many more important topics in the jewellery supply chain. RJC also works with multi-stakeholder initiatives on responsible sourcing and supply chain due diligence. The RJC’s Chain-of-Custody Certification for precious metals supports these initiatives and can be used as a tool to deliver broader Member and stakeholder benefit.

The RJC is a Full Member of the ISEAL Alliance – the global association for sustainability standards. For more information on RJC Members, Certification, and Standards please visit www.responsiblejewellery.com
