RESPONSIBLE JEWELLERY COUNCIL CERTIFIES ASIAN DIAMONDS BVBA

LONDON - The Responsible Jewellery Council (RJC) announced today that Asian Diamonds BVBA, the Antwerp-based rough and polished diamond manufacturer, has achieved certification by meeting the highest ethical, social and environmental standards established by the RJC's Member Certification system.

"RJC is delighted to congratulate Asian Diamonds BVBA on its certification. The successful verification assessment was conducted by Stefaan Beirens from WF&Co., one of the independent third-party auditing firms accredited to the RJC's Member Certification system," says Michael Rae, RJC's Chief Executive Officer.

"At Asian Diamonds we are honoured to have become certified by the Responsible Jewellery Council. We believe that, being Asian Diamonds an honest and credible company, the RJC certification will further solidify our name and status in the diamond business. We feel that RJC certification is crucial to our future success in the business," says Hasmukh Sanghvi, Director, Asian Diamonds BVBA.

About RJC

The Responsible Jewellery Council is an international not-for-profit organisation bringing together more than 370 member companies committed to promoting responsible ethical, human rights, social and environmental practices in a transparent and accountable manner throughout the jewellery industry from mine to retail. Their commitment aims to reinforce consumer and stakeholder confidence in diamond, gold and platinum group metals jewellery products. The Council has developed the RJC Member Certification System, a certification system, which will apply to all Members' businesses that contribute to the diamond, gold and platinum group metals jewellery supply chain. All Commercial Members of the RJC are required to be audited by accredited, third-party auditors to verify their conformance with the RJC's Code of Practices and become certified under the RJC Member Certification System.
