Summary of Findings

ASAHI METALFINE, Inc. (former Asahi Pretec Corp.) joined the RJC in 2017 within the precious metals trader, refiner and/or hedger forum. This is their second certification, based on an audit conducted during 19th of May and 26th-31st of May and 1st and 3rd of June 2022. The below summary of audit findings complements the Member’s current RJC certificate No 0000 4183.

Audit objective, activities, and methodology

The objective of the audit was to review the member’s systems and processes to establish whether they conform to the RJC Code of Practices (COP) 2019. The audit activities included planning, conducting the audit and reporting on conformance, including corrective actions approval, as per the RJC Assessment Manual. The audit consisted of collecting / sampling and reviewing objective evidence including documentation, management and employee interviews, facility walk-through, and other observations, in relation to at least the previous 12 months.

The auditors confirm that:

- The information provided by the member is true and accurate to the best knowledge of the auditor(s) preparing the report.
- The findings are based on verified objective evidence relevant to the time period for the audit, traceable and unambiguous.
- The audit scope and audit methodology are sufficient to establish confidence that the findings are indicative of the performance of the member’s defined certification scope.
- The auditor(s) have acted in a manner deemed ethical, truthful, accurate professional, independent and objective.

Description of Member Company

ASAHI METALFINE, Inc. (former Asahi Pretec Corp.) is a Japanese company established in 1952 and owned by parent company Asahi Holdings Corporation (non-RJC member). The latter also owns another RJC member, Asahi Refining Canada Ltd.

At the time of the audit, this member was recycling precious metals and rare metals such as gold, silver, platinum and palladium and operated collection and disposal of waste.

The member is due to split in three companies as of April 1, 2023, with the below activities:

- ASahi METALFINE, Inc. (former Asahi Pretec Corp. and RJC member): Precious metal refining, manufacturing and trading business.
- Asahi Pretec Corp. (new company): Precious metal recycling business
- Japan Waste Corporation (new company): Environmental conservation business

No of sites visited:	Country/Countries:
6	Japan

Noteworthy achievements

- Gold and silver are certified as Good Delivery Bars by The London Bullion Market Association (LBMA). Platinum and palladium are certified as Good Delivery Bars by LPPM (The London Platinum and Palladium Market).
- The Member is certified to the RJC Chain of Custody (CoC).

		Results/Outcomes - There are systems in place to identify, track, collect, communicate the findings and seek and receive feedback from internal and external sources regularly. Member takes action if found to cause, contribute or link to any human rights impacts. The response to affected stakeholders is efficient, accessible and integrated (e.g. performance contracts, surveys, audits, gender-segregated data, grievance mechanisms).
7.1 Due diligence for responsible sourcing from Conflict-Affected and High-Risk Areas	Conformance	Member is fully compliant with this COP provision. Commitments/Policies - There is a strong management system process in place which is aligned with the 5 steps of the OECD Due Diligence Guidance for Responsible Supply Chains of Minerals from Conflict-Affected and High-Risk Areas (CAHRAs), and/or other RJC recognised frameworks as relevant to business size, complexity and materials in scope. The policy and due diligence are also aligned with COP Provisions 6, 8, 12 and 29. Efforts/Practice - The policy is widely communicated (Responsible Precious Metals Management Policy). There is an effective and efficient management system in place with procedures for collecting information from suppliers and sharing it with buyers. Member defines CAHRAs and has an established process to identify risks. The member established a responsible precious metals management system in accordance with the London Bullion Market Association (LBMA) and London Platinum and Palladium Market (LPPM) guidance. In order to conduct supply chain due diligence, the member collects information about counterparties, suppliers and form/type/origin of materials. The information is recorded into a Customer Risk Assessment List which includes due diligence results for their counterparties and is reviewed annually. The member identifies the areas that may lead to high-risk transactions and sets out the "Amber List of countries". To determine the countries, the member comprehensively evaluates four indicators of conflict, governance, human rights and money-laundering and includes the EU CAHRAs list, as well as individual cases that adversely affect the precious metal supply chain.

CODE OF PRACTICE 2019 PROVISIONS	RATING	COMMENTS / CONCLUSIONS
		There is an internal management system supporting the supply chain due diligence that has been set up to define the governance, roles and responsibilities, internal review, communication and senior management review as per the Responsible Precious Metals Management Manual. The Compliance Officer, who is the chairman of the Responsible Precious Metals Management Committee, is assigned to manage the process of due diligence, annually review the effectiveness of management system and report directly to senior management. There are grievance mechanisms, identification and assessment of risks, management of risks (if applicable), verification and annual reporting, with required elements publicly shared, including due diligence (see Reporting page and Precious Metals Business page). Results/Outcomes - There are fully effective and accessible systems in place to identify, assess, manage risks (if red flags are identified), verify, monitor and evaluate improvements and report publicly on an annual basis. As part of the due diligence process, and for the reporting year ending on March 31, 2022, the member identified one silver supplier who was not in compliance with domestic law. The member terminated the business relationship with the identified supplier due to risk mitigation not being possible. The member did not identify any other transaction contributing to conflict, human rights abuses, money laundering, financing terrorists, corruption, fraudulent transactions, and non-compliance with environmental and sustainability legal requirements.
7.1a Due diligence for responsible sourcing from Conflict-Affected and High-Risk Areas	Conformance	Member is fully compliant with this COP provision. Commitments/Policies - There is a transparent and efficient procedure to assess all internal inventory and transaction processes to identify material inputs, product classification, type and weight of material inputs and outputs, supplier details, including KYC. There are policy and management system processes that have been implemented. All processes and policies are aligned with the OECD Guidance and relevant RJC COP Provisions 6, 8 and 12.
